Onyx 900 Electric Chiropractic Table Manual Drop Flexion Distraction Table

Description

The newly Onyx 900 is an electric treatment table dedicated to chiropractic treatment and manual techniques.

The multifunctional 7-section tabletop is equipped with an advanced adjustment system that allows the use of “drop” technique, movement function and positioning of the patient’s body in various planes. The stable steel frame with a chassis is the perfect complement to the therapist’s work.

Onyx 900 is the most advanced fully loaded therapy table for physiotherapy, manual techniques, osteopathy and chiropractic elements. The 7-section tabletop is equipped with special adjustment systems, enabling the therapist to work with individual parts of the patient’s body.
